

CHINA

TOWN HALL

Local Connections, National Reflections

U.S. – China Relations 2018

Tuesday, October 9

3:00 pm interactive webcast with Condoleezza Rice

4:00 pm talk by Minxin Pei, our local China specialist

5:00 pm (Replay of Condoleezza Rice for those who missed it.)

CSUSB, College of Extended & Global Education, Yasuda Center, Room 111

5500 University Parkway, San Bernardino 92410

Register online: <https://www.wacinlandsocal.org>

Join communities across the U. S. in a national conversation on China through an interactive webcast with Secretary Condoleezza Rice and an on-site discussion with Dr. Minxin Pei on “Are the U.S. and China headed for another Cold War?”

The Honorable Condoleezza Rice

66th U.S. Secretary of State and Former National Security Advisor

Minxin Pei

Prof. & Dir. Keck Center, CMC & Library of Congress Chair in U.S.-China Relations

Thanks also to the History Club/Phi Alpha Theta, the College of Extended and Global Education, and the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences for their support of this event.

