

invite you to an important international policy discussion

“The U.S. & 21st Century Africa”

daunting obstacles, amazing opportunities and the role of the entrepreneur

FEATURING AMBASSADOR ROBIN RENEE SANDERS, D.Sc.

Why is Africa a critical player in a stable global future in relation to poverty, health, human rights and free government? What is the most effective role for the U.S. in Africa?

ROBIN RENEE SANDERS

a Woodrow Wilson Visiting Scholar, is the former U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of the Congo and the Republic of Nigeria, and U.S. Permanent Representative to the Economic Community of West African States. Ambassador Sanders is now CEO of FEEEDS Advocacy Initiative and owns FE3DS, LLC which works on economic development, Information Communication Technologies and Africa business strategies.

Thurs. March 28, 2019

Reception 5:30pm | Talk 6:15 - 7:45pm

CALIFORNIA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY

8432 Magnolia Ave, Riverside 92504

Copenbarger Dining Room, 2nd floor Yeager Bldg

(FREE PARKING in lot adjacent)

RECEPTION & TALK COST:

CBU Faculty & Students FREE | WAC Members $20 | Non-Members $25

TALK ONLY COST:

Members/Non-Members $10 | Univ. students & H.S. teachers w/ 4-5 students FREE

REGISTER AT wacinlandsocal.org